

Revisiting Chornobyl

... 25 years later

Remembering Chornobyl in Film and Literature with Irene Zabytko

Writer and filmmaker Irene Zabytko will present her award-winning 10-minute film, Epiphany at Chornobyl, an offshoot of her in-progress, full-length documentary, Life in the Dead Zone, about former evacuees who returned to live in the forbidden Exclusion Zone surrounding the Chornobyl Nuclear Power Plant in Ukraine. She will also read excerpts from her highly acclaimed novel, The Sky Unwashed, and her collection of essays titled In Chornobyl. The program will be conducted in English. There will be a question and answer period, followed by refreshments and a book signing.

Saturday, March 19, 2011 at 6:00 pm
Holy Trinity Ukrainian Orthodox Church Hall
9672 State Road, North Royalton, OH

Open to the public - Goodwill donations welcome

Sponsored by the Ukrainian National Women's League of America, Branch 12

We wish to thank Holy Trinity Ukrainian Autocephalous Orthodox Church for donating the use of their hall and The Cleveland Selfreliance Federal Credit Union for covering printing costs.